Stage 1

Regional wetland and water body plan

The MRC of Argenteuil has launched its regional wetlands and water environments plan. They took advantage of Water Month to highlight the fruit of a remarkable collaborative effort involving over 80 partners, including the Wentworth Investment in Legacy Development (WILD). The primary objective of the plan is to identify the environments to be conserved, restored and created. This, in a perspective of balance between preservation and development.

Exhibitions

The Route des Arts celebrates 25 years

The Workshop Circuit resumes from July 13 to 21. Explore regional artists, including Géraldine Banville from the Township of Wentworth. Flyers are available at the Town Hall.

I enjoy approaching my canvas spontaneously, without preconceived ideas. At first, I instinctively leave imprints on the material. This symbiosis between gesture and observation, intuition, and fruitful thought then emerges.

Explore (french only)

Argenteuil MRC's Inspirer Respirer, the region's image, offers a blog full of discoveries on its website.

You will find ideas for outdoor activities, but also the diversity and quality of Argenteuil's commercial offerings. The blog highlights shops, restaurants, and artisans worth visiting.

ENVIRONMENT

Management of residual materials

Thanks to its informative content and excellence in popularization, the Tricentris cooperative has quickly become a benchmark in Quebec for recovery, recycling and selective collection.

Every year, the company receives and sorts over 215,000 metric tons of recyclable materials from 2 million residents in the Laurentians, Outaouais, Montérégie, Laval, Lanaudière and Abitibi-Témiscamingue.

Loons have established themselves at Lake Bixley

Conservation efforts bring loons to Bixley Lake!

Argenteuil Ornithological Development has placed specialized buoys in Lake Bixley, establishing additional nesting sites for loons.

PREVENTION

A head, a helmet

Whether you are on a bike, scooter or motorbike, wearing a helmet is essential for your safety.

A helmet is your best weapon against serious head injuries in the event of an accident. Don't take unnecessary risks, always wear a properly fitted helmet.

Moreover, make sure that your helmet meets performance standards, including impact resistance.
